

Exhibitor General Information

- In general, all entities are responsible for complying with the Uniform Fire code and the below are guidelines, not an attempt to cover the criteria and standards contained in such.
- No display or exhibit shall be installed or operated as to interfere with access to or with the visibility of any required exit or exit sign, nor shall any display block access to fire equipment.
- Aisle space must be kept clear during exhibit show hours. All display materials and items must be contained in the exhibitors assigned space.
- The exhibitors are encouraged to insure themselves against property loss or damage and against liability for personal injury at their own expense and obtain a certificate of insurance from any outside contractor hired by the exhibitor.
- Exhibitors may be asked to show Identification upon entering the exhibit hall.
- Nothing shall be tacked, taped, nailed, screwed, or otherwise attached to air walls, walls, floors or other parts of the building or furniture.
 - Visqueen or alternate surface protectors are required with all heavy equipment.

Security

The hotel does not provide security services but can help arrange such services. Hotel is not responsible for items left in exhibit hall but the vendor room will be locked at all times when not open.